

"Being involved with documentary films myself, I appreciate good reference material. It's a 'must have' book if you happen to be looking for original film footage regarding World War I. this is a very well organized and detailed catalog." Tony Lazzarini,
President Military Writer's Society of America